Message from the President

Hello all!!

As I look out my home office window to see the lingering snow, I'm grateful for my well-stocked fabric cupboard and overflowing pattern shelves. It's a great time to catch up on all those projects that have been calling your name. If your stash needs some replenishment, don't forget that most of our cherished local quilt shops offer online orders and curbside pickups.

The Executive Committee has made the decision to offer you the rest of this year's Zoom workshops at HALF PRICE! Yes, you can sign up for Jackie White's "3-D Flower" and Melissa Marginet's "Planning Your Walking Foot Quilting" for only $25 each. We hope to see you there!

Please join us on February 3 for Jackie White's trunk show, it's sure to inspire!

I wanted to take this moment to thank every one of our members who have taken time throughout this pandemic to contribute to our community. In the early stages, many made masks, scrub caps, scrub bags, and many other much needed items. As the months dragged on, you kept making quilts, placemats, and pillowcases. Because our Guild's storage room and CORE workshop space was off limits, so much of these efforts came from personal stashes. Quilting is not a cheap hobby; fabric can be expensive. So, I wanted to say thank you, to all those who have kept our CORE program going, it means so much to our community.

One last note... We are so happy to have Marie Starr on board as our new VP. There are still many positions on the Executive Committee that need to be filled for next year. These include:

Secretary

Block-Of-The-Month

Library

Program

Workshop

Website/Social Media Coordinator

Please consider stepping forward to join us, these positions are critical to the ongoing success of our guild. You can contact Marlene Weaver for more information about any of these jobs.

Many thanks, and happy stitching!

Darlene Jenah, President

Community Outreach (Core)

What a chilly start to 2022! We hope you have been able to stay nice and warm inside, making quilts. Again, our thanks for the wonderful quilts, placemats, pillowcases and Izzy dolls you made in 2021. Our charity partners were thrilled to receive these.

We thought we might set a challenge for 2022:

We received a last-minute request for pillowcases for teens at the Salvation Army and were able to pull together 75. Our goal for this year is 125, so please think of making a teen's holiday a little brighter.

We also delivered 63 Izzy dolls to the Children's Aid Society. We would like to strive for 100 this year, so maybe some knitting friends could use up some small balls of yarn for this project. We have some donated yarn as well, let us know if you would like some

With the recent announcement from the province about re-opening, our room at Tomken will be accessible starting in February so we can get into the storage room. If you need any fabric for quilt tops, or for backing, please let us know and we will retrieve some for you. We also have a good supply of batting. There are lots of quilts needing quilting, so if you want one of these just let us know. We would be happy to deliver them to you.

Thank you for your continued support of CORE.

Wendy Yule, Kathy Chapman, Sandra Dunlop and Mary Beth Filegan CORE Coordinators

Block of the Month

We hope you are enjoying this mystery and are making an effort to keep up with the blocks each month. The larger pieces for each one makes it simpler to match the points and corners. Your next assignment will be posted by Patrick on the website the day after our meeting. Get those rotary cutters ready!

Quilts of Valour

Our unit of Quilts of Valour in 2021 were able to distribute and present 109 quilts from our unit to various individual older veterans and those served by the armouries around Canada, but mostly in Ontario. There were no in person presentations, but the Armed Forces helped to move the quilts to various locations.

At present our inventory on hand is low but since the outset of 2022 I already have received several finished quilts and there are some in preparation. On a positive note, the COVID lockdown and isolation has provided more time to quilt for ourselves and for worthy causes and this has helped to provide these most-appreciated gifts of comfort. When the pandemic hopefully weakens, we hope to meet again monthly but no decision will be made for awhile.

For any further information or questions, please contact Shirley Hoad

Also of note:

- Quilts of Valour is having a sew day again this year on February 4th. You can sign up here: <https://www.quiltsofvalour.ca/what-s-new>
- Patti Carey (Patti's Patchwork) is having a sew along March – December this year to create a quilt called With Glowing Hearts which is a suitable size for Quilts of Valour. You can find all the signup details on her website here: <https://pattispatchwork-blog.com/2022/01/27/please-join-me-in-a-celebration/> You will need to purchase a copy of the pattern available at quilt shops or her website. Sign up for her newsletter and the Northcott newsletter for extra tips. All the details are in her blog post.

CQA

Check out the website for upcoming lectures. You can find the list of lectures here:

<https://canadianquilter.com/webinars/> This month the speakers are Angela Walters and Shannon Prince. Tickets are available on the website.

Also check out the challenges for Quilt Canada 2022. The kits for Trendtex Refresh Challenge are available for purchase now. There's a Rewire challenge for members and a Real Fun Youth Challenge for youth up to 19 years of age. Entries for this challenge need a CQA member to sponsor it. Finally, there is a Reaffirm challenge for member guild. This requires fabric colours to represent our province blue some red. The guild votes which challenge is their favorite and submits it. Details for all the challenges can be found here:

<https://canadianquilter.com/cqa-acc-quilt-challenges-2022/>

There is also a new(old) Quilt along for 2022. They are re-releasing the millennium Quilt each month over the course of this year. This was a quilt originally published in 1999. You can find all the details here:

<https://canadianquilter.com/quilt-alongs/> and the link to join the related facebook group.

Other Possibilities

- There are two zoom sewing sessions for you to join each week. Wednesday evening starting at 6:30 and Thursday afternoon starting at 1:30. You can stitch away while visiting with other members
- Thanks to Darlene Harvey for the link to this article about Quilt Sizes: <https://www.hancocks-paducah.com/blog/quilt-sizes>
- From the Bluewater Quilters Guild Newsletter: Urban Elementz (www.urbanelementz.com) sells pantographs (and pre-cut appliqués) but they have lots that are FREE! Pantographs are patterns that longarmers can trace for edge to edge designs, or block motifs but these are also handy for people other than longarmers.
 - On the website, type free into the search bar.
 - See this tutorial by Laura Coia for some ideas on using a pantograph to quilt on a domestic. <https://youtu.be/rQI2qUccptg>
- If you have a link to a tip, please send it to me for future issues.

My sister has me hooked on Masterchef Australia. We recently watched an elimination challenge set by Nigella Lawson where the contestants had to cook four chocolate recipes. All were very yummy. The link has the steps for all the recipes, so you need to scan down to pick out what you'd like. Ruby Chocolate Cheesecake, Emergency Brownies, Chocolate Olive Oil Mousse or Chocolate Chip Cookie Dough Pots. <https://10play.com.au/masterchef/recipes/nigellas-chocolate-feast/r190614xkofj> Do you have a recipe suggestion? Please email me a link.

Retreat 2022
